

Intermediate
Learning Outcomes
Fluency / Functions: By the end of Intermediate C , the Learner will be able to:
1	give their opinions in discussions on familiar topics.
2	make requests and offers.
3	discuss music, books, the arts and sport.
4	make complaints.
5	summarize an authentic magazine/newspaper article on a topic of their choosing.
Vocabulary: By the end of Intermediate C , the Learner will be comfortable with:
1	adjectives to describe personality and appearance.
2	vocabulary surrounding life stages (birth, marriage, death etc).
3	nouns and adjectives to describe the weather.
4	sport and leisure vocabulary.
5	common collocations and fixed expressions found in signs.
Listening: By the end of Intermediate C , the Learner will be able to:
1	understand the gist and some detail of carefully chosen near native speech.
2	follow the gist of the main stories in a short authentic news bulletin.

Grammar: By the end of Intermediate C , the Learner will be using, (although not always accurately in terms of form or meaning):
1	past simple and continuous, present and past perfect simple
2	modals of obligation, permission and ability
3	going to and will
4	conditionals
5	non-defining relative clauses