

Pre-Intermediate

Learning Outcomes

Fluency / Functions: By the end of Pre-Intermediate C, the Learner will be able to:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | hold simple conversations on a wide range of familiar topics. |
| 2 | make simple telephone calls. |
| 3 | try on and buy clothes/shoes in a shop. |
| 4 | ask for information in a tourist office. |

Vocabulary: By the end of Pre-Intermediate C, the Learner will be comfortable with vocabulary on the topics of:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1 | family and personal history |
| 2 | their home / town / country |
| 3 | hobbies and leisure activities |
| 4 | holidays, travel and transport |
| 5 | food and drink |
| 6 | clothes and clothes shopping |

Listening: By the end of Pre-Intermediate C, the Learner will be able to:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | listen for detail and put a functional dialogue (eg in a shop) into order. |
| 2 | take a simple message on the phone. |
| 3 | listen for the basic gist of a higher level listening passage with a simple tick box task. |

Grammar: By the end of Pre-Intermediate C, the Learner will be using, (although not always accurately in terms of form or meaning):

1	present simple and continuous.
2	irregular and regular simple pasts.
3	present perfect 1 (life experience) i.e. I've been to Glasgow.