

Upper-Intermediate
Learning Outcomes
Fluency / Functions: By the end of Upper-Intermediate C , the Learner will be able to hold a conversation with an unknown native on the topics of :
1	news and current affairs
2	their work
3	their hobbies and interests, books and music
4	their country
5	controversial topics
Vocabulary: By the end of Upper-Intermediate C , the Learner will be comfortable with:
1	a wide range of idiomatic expressions and phrasal verbs
2	the vocabulary needed to talk about their country, their hobbies and interests, books and music, their work and news and current affairs
Listening: By the end of Upper-Intermediate C , the Learner will be able to:
1	Understand the detail of an authentic listening on a topic of general interest
	Understand the gist of an authentic listening on an unfamiliar topic
Grammar: By the end of Upper-Intermediate C the Learner will be using, (although not always accurately in terms of form or meaning):
1	defining and non-defining relative clauses
2	present and past passives

3	all the major tenses
4	conditionals
5	modals of permission, ability, possibility and obligation